I have had a cancer on my face for some years, extending from one cheekbone across the nose to the other. It has given me a great deal of pain, at times burning and inching to such an extent that it was almost unbestable. I commenced using Swift's Specific in May, 1885, and have used eight bothes. It has given the greatest relief by removing the inflammation and restoring my general health.

THE FLEMING ADDITION TO THE CON FEDERATE SOLDIERS HOME.

Formal Presentation of the Keys to Gov ernor Lee-Addresses and Other Incidents, &c., &c.

Colonel Robert I. Fleming, of Washington, who has built a costly addition to the Soldiers' Home, reached the city yesterday morning accompanied by Colonel M. M. Parker, Major Garber, Colonel Robert Boyd, and Mr. F. N.
Carver, all of Washington. They were met at the depôt by Major Thomas Brander of the Board of Trustees of the Soldiers' Home, Colonel John Murphy of Lee Camp, and others. After cordial greetings they were driven out to the Home to inspect the new ad-

PRESENTATION OF THE KEYS. Late yesterday afternoon the formal presentation of the new building took place. There were present at the Home Colonel Fleming and his party. Governor Lee, General Cooke, the offi-cers of the Home, the commander of Lee Camp, and others.

As the party entered the grounds, Governor Lee and Colonel Fleming at the head, Major Brander fired a salute of artillery.

Mr. Glenn, of Lee Camp, turned over the keys of the new building to Colonel Fleming. The latter presented them to Governor Lee as the president of the Board of Trustees of the Home. Both gentlemen made brief and appropriate addresses.

Making Its Influence Felt. The Chicago Times says: The St. Louis pool lines are disturbed by the fact that the Chesapeake and Ohio is getting what they consider too large a proportion of the through east-bound business from that point. It is allowed a differential on account of its combination of water and rail to New York, and that concession seems to be sufficient to turn a goodly proportion of the traffic over its line. The Chesapeake and Ohio has not made a raid into the Chicago market for some time, its experiments in that direction not having been very satisfactory so far : but it is expected that when all Huntington's plans are completed it will become a formidable competitor for a share of the through business, especially export traffic. Much depends upon the campaign which it is expected that the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton will enter into in the way of extensions, a belief being entertained that the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Indianapolis branch will be extended to Chicago next year, but even this is not necessary in order for the Chesapeake and Ohio to invade this territory. It is no secret that the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago road would be willing to enter into a more advantageous contract for both lines than it now has with the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Indianapolis, and negotiations looking to that end were begun several It is not probable that the Chesapeake and Ohio will make any very aggressive moves until its new bridge is built across the Ohio river at Cincinnati, and when that is accomplished it is said that Commissioner Fink will put forth his most persuasive powers to induce THE HIT OF THE SEASON.—

City Hall Will Be Built by Day-Labor Captain Andrew Pizzini, a membe of the Committee on Grounds and Buildings, states that the committee have already determined to build the City Hall by "day-labor"; but as certain parts of the building cannot be built by that system, as for example, the rolled iron beams, the elevators, boilers for heating, electrical contrivances, &c., they desire to be authorized to contract only for that part of the work. Hence the resolution recently passed asking the Council to give them authority on this particular subject. The commit-tee are unanimous in their desire to carry out the will of the people as expressed in the late election, and have no idea of even calling for bids for such portions of the new City Hall as can be done by the "day-labor" system.

MANCHESTER NEWS NOTES.

Attempted Robbery-City-Committee . Meeting To-Night-Santtary

Measures, &c. Considerable excitement was created here last night by what was supposed to be an attempt at burglary. About to be an attempt at burglary. About half-past 9 o'clock Mr. Creed P. Davis. who keeps a saloon at the corner of Fourth and Hull streets, was sitting in front of his place with several friends, when his attention was attracted by his dog, which was lying on a table in the room back of the bar, barking and running out into the back yard in pursuit of something. Mr. Davis followed the dog and found that it had something at bay in the fence-corner. It being dark, Mr. Davis struck a match, and a colored man leaped the fence and ran off up town. Several persons pur-sued the unknown man until he dodged them about Weisiger's drugstore, on Hull street between Seventh and Eighth. On Tuesday last some one entered Mr. Davis's place, and took from the shelf a pocket-knife and about $3.25 in change. It is probable that the one who got this money is the same person who tried to play the same game last night. Two or more unsuccessful attempts have been made to get a meeting of the newly-elected City Democratic Committee but in neither instance was there a quorum present. Another appointment has been made for a meeting o be held at the Mayor's Court-room at o'clock to-night, when it is to be hoped a quorum may be present, that a perma-nent organization may be effected. It is time the Democrats of the city were organizing and getting to work ready for the fall campaign, which will no doubt be a warm and hotly-contested one. The Republicans have always looked with eagerness upon the actions of the Democrats here, and have never left anything undone which was likely to add to their chances for gaining posses sion of this Democratic stronghold. Those who have been elected to the committee who cannot or will not attend the meetings should resign and let men be chosen as their successors who will attend the meetings and do active work for the success of the party in the coming fight, which is an exceedingly important one. Every Democrat should suckle on the armor to go forth and do battle, that an unusually large majority may be given the Democratic nominee for Congress from the Third district, A number of persons are being reported for violating the city ordi-nances—some for allowing ponds of stagnant water to remain on their premises and others for neglecting other sanitary measures equally as damaging, if not more so, to the health of the city.

The Orphan Excursion to Norwood or the James. [For the Dispatch.]

Fifty happy boys, under charge of Mrs. Gill and her assistant, went down about a mile below Dutch Gap yesterday to the new pleasure-grounds being fitted up for the comfort of the good people of Richmond. The place is called Norwood, and the good little steamer is of the same name-neat and capacious, with a good piano and obliging officers, who tendered this extursion to the boys of the Asylum free f cost. The day was hot in Richmond but not hot on the steamer; her motion caused a pretty stiff breeze. On landing most of the boys "took water," and the bath was very delightful. One of the Board of Managers had charge of the party in the water to see that no one was drowned. The water was so tempting that it was difficult for the steamer's whistle to get the boys out of it. These boys will doubtless long remember their first trip on the noble James. To them it will be as notable as a trip across the Atlantic to an adult.

The good captain and officers of the Norwood have also tendered to the Presbyterian and Methodist ladies at the Home on Seventh street a free excursion, which will take place next week. So they will make both the old and young happy for one day at least. Dancing at Norwood Park and on

Mr. Stevenson, of Highland, moved that the rules of the House of Delegates be adopted, and that nominating speeches be limited to ten minutes. This caused considerable discussion, orrespondent of the New York Star, but was finally adopted.

Mr. R. A. Coghill, of Amherst, chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, offered the following report, which was That this Convention readirm its alegiance to the principles of the Demo cratic party as enunciated in the platforms of the last State and National resolution, claiming that the members of the Convention ought to know what a candidate was for before he was nominated, and that these questions were tal ones in the State. This was the cause of a spirited and animated discussion that was participated in by many, and was lost by a rising vote of 45 to 110. Mr. John W. Todd, of Staunton, then moved that the Convention proceed to cominate a candidate for Congress.

Mr. F. T. Glasgow, of Rockbridge, laced in nomination Colonel William A. Anderson of that county, and in so doing paid a handsome tribute to the Hon. John Randelph Tucker, who had represented the district for several terms and who declined to become a candidate. He advocated the claims of Mr. Anderson with great force and igor, claiming that he had extensive experience on the hustings and on the leer of the House of Delegates and Senate in debate, and was well worthy f reward for services rendered the

Mr. George M. Cochrane, of Staunon, then rose and nominated "that callant leader of Augusta Democracy, James Bumgardner, Jr., of Augusts, and said in all candor that he was the peer of any man before the Convention, and that he had no sores to heal and no animosities to cure. His friends and neighbors had urged him to be a candidate and claimed recognition for his services, and no man had rendered better ervices to the party than he. The speaker appealed to the Convention to cominate Captain Bumgardner, saying that in doing so it would bring the entire vote of the Democrats to his support, and he mentioned that it was the purpose of the Republicans to take their candidate from Augusta-take a man who had a great personal following in that county. He mentioned that one of the causes that Augusta held her own in the recent campaign when other counties had lost was that this little man was at her helm. " Give her some recognition by rewarding her son.'

Mr. R. A. Coghill, of Amherst, then commated Senator J. Taylor Berry, of that county, saying that he was a selfmade man and the peer of any man. He cautioned the Convention against making a mistake in their selection. What was wanted was a man of experience, wise and discreet, who had and a number of years of experience n the State Senate and on the hustings He said it made little difference from what section of the district the candidate came, but he thought that some consideration ought to be shown his. WASHINGTON, July 29.—The President to-day nominated George A. Jenks, of Pennsylvania, to be Solicitor-General. Indications continue favorable for an adjournment of Congress without day by next Monday. Should the President, however, decide neither to sign nor veto the oleomargarine bill, the friends of the measure will seek to postpone it till Tuesday, on which day becomes a law without the President's approval. The conferrees on the river and-harbor bill talk less hopefully to-day of their prospects for agreement, but the issues are well defined, and the differences may be reconciled in a moment whenever one side or the other decides to recede. It is not probable that the failure to agree upon the measure will postpone an adjournment. The worst of the remaining problems to be solved are embodied in the sun dry civil bill, and the difficulty with these consists rather in their number than their character. There was a call for a conference upon the measure this morning, but a querum did not appear at the appointed time, and nothing was

The unwillingness of the President to sign any bill until he has had time to study its provisions has given rise to an apprehension that Congress will be kept in session to afford this opportunity some days after the appropriation bills are passed.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs to-day considered Representative Lanham's resolution calling on the Department of State for the correswould without doubt be released within a few days, and it was deemed unnecessary to take any further action on the resolution. The committee has adjourned until the next session. The Senate Committee on Public Lands to-day ordered a favorable report on House bill "to declare forfaiture of lands granted to the New Orleans. Baton Rouge and Vicksburg Backbone Railroad Company, to confirm the title to certain lands, and for other purposes." Senator Van Wyck will make a minority report adverse to the portion of the bill confirming to the New Orleans Pacific Railway Company, as assignee, a portion of the original Backbone

A party who has just come from the Buffalo Lithia Springs says there is no hotel in Virginia kept as well. The cuisine is simply perfect, and the service most admirable.

These Springs are of great medical value—in fact, unequalled in this country—and have long deserved a good hotel, and we are glad that the public can at last find one that will satisfy them. The charge are medicate and them. The charges are moderate, and no higher than other Virginia resorts with equal accommodations. About fifty guests are now there, and arrivals daily increasing. Buffalo Springs have long been noted for the high character and refinement of its visitors, and this season is no exception.

The Richmond and Danville issue round-trip excursion tickets at $7.70. Parties leaving Richmond at 3:25 arrive at Springs same evening at 9 o'clock.

Imitations have been foisted upon the market so closely resembling Allcock's Porous Plasters in general appearance as to be well calculated to decaive. It is, however, in general appearance only that they compare with Allcock's, for they are worse than worthless, inasmuch as they contain deleterious ingeredients which are apt to cause serious injury. Remember that Allcock's are the only genuine porous plasters-the best external remedy ever known; and when purchasing plasters do not only ask for but see that you get " Allcock's Porous Plasters." The popularity which these plasters have attained during the past thirty years has no parallel, so it is no wonder that imitations and counterfeits
